

PIONEERING TECHNOLOGY DAY

NOVEMBER 13, 2010

10:00 – 4:00

WEATHER PERMITTING

(NO RAIN DATE – CHECK WEBSITE)

ADMISSION

Adults $5.00

Children (3 - 16) $2.00

Find directions on the website

www.atimeforscience.org

to be a PART of the 21st CENTURY
we must make
A TIME FOR SCIENCE
NOW!

www.atimeforscience.org

Join A Time for Science Nature and Science Learning Center.

Experience and celebrate technologies of the distant and recent past that brought us to the 21st Century

HANDS-ON ACTIVITIES FOR YOUNG AND OLD

PRODUCTS AND ITEMS ON SALE BY LOCAL ARTISANS & VENDORS

Early Crafts

- Bead craft
- Pine needle baskets
- Weaving
- Coal burned bowls
- Knife forging
- Wood working plus cardboard furniture
- And More

Market Vendors

- Locavore Market
- Nooherooka Natural Beef
- And More

Music

- Zen Revelators
- Chance Bair & Friends
- Native American flutes and drums

Additional Fun

- Hayride tours of Bray Hollow Conservancy
- Canoe rides on Little Contentnea Creek
- Nature Walks

Food

- BBQ Sandwiches by Bum's Restaurant of Ayden (11:00-2:00)
- Cookies & Drinks by Love A Sea Turtle

Past & Recent Technologies

- Solar energy
- Balloon launch to the edge of space
- Telescope making demo
- Take-home sun dial
- Old-time toys
- Ham radio
- Space Shuttle tire
- Colonial herbarium arts
- Hand pump
- Robotics

ON-LINE OR E-MAIL
REGISTRATION
RECOMMENDED
www.atimeforscience.org
atfs@atimeforscience.org