- ❖ Jupiter is still a bright beacon & will be overhead at sunset
- ❖ The moon will again be full and present an opportunity to marvel at the maria, craters, and mountains on its surface
- ❖ The bright moon may diminish their appearance but the mighty hunter Orion will be rising and by full darkness the winter constellations should be in view

Signing-in at the Center offers a chance to see the newly installed sun dial constructed as a high school senior project as well as

ANOTHER CHANCE TO EXPERIENCE A TOUCH OF SPACE

WHILE AT A TIME FOR SCIENCE PARTICIPANTS WILL HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO SEE, TOUCH, EXPLORE AND EXAMINE THE NOSE-WHEEL TIRE THAT WENT INTO SPACE AND BACK ON THE SPACE SHUTTLE ENDEAVOUR, MISSION STS-113.

THIS HISTORIC ITEM IS ON LOAN FROM NASA AND THE EASTERN NC REGIONAL SCIENCE CENTER, INC. (DBA GO-SCIENCE).

BRING THE KIDS. BRING THE CAMERA.

To be part of the 21st century we must make A TIME FOR SCIENCE now.
